

WINTER BRIDGE LESSONS AT WILD OAK SADDLE CLUB

Gerry Fox, teacher

How to Compete, Neat and Complete

From standard overcalls and takeout doubles to modern adaptations, learn how best to get your side into the auction. Learn also how to get the most mileage from your cards, when your opponents interfere with your bidding. Be prepared, be consistent, become a winner!

Where: Wild Oak Saddle Club,
Santa Rosa (adjacent to Oakmont)

When: Monday mornings at 9:30 A.M., starting January 30, 2012

How Long: Two hours each week for eight weeks

How Much: $75 per person for the series for members of Wild Oak (or $11 for single lessons);
non-members pay $85 and $13 respectively.

How to Join: Students may enroll, with or without a partner, at the first class meeting.

We Bid okay, when left alone,
The sky's the limit on our own;
But, when the opponents get in our way,
With fear and folly to Goren we pray!
